

Information on Personal Data Processing, Pursuant to Articles 13–14 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679

Data subjects concerned: suppliers.

Partitalia Srl, in its capacity as Data Controller of your personal data, pursuant to and for the purposes of EU Regulation 2016/679, hereinafter 'GDPR', hereby informs you that the above-mentioned legislation provides for the protection of the data subjects concerned with regard to the processing of personal data, and that such processing will be based on the principles of correctness, lawfulness, transparency and protection of your privacy and rights.

Your personal data will be processed in accordance with the legal provisions of the above-mentioned legislation and the confidentiality obligations therein.

Partitalia will process personal data communicated or legitimately collected ('Personal Data'). In particular, the following Personal Data may be processed:

Identifying data: data enabling direct identification, such as personal data (e.g. name, surname, tax code, VAT number, address, etc.);

Contact data: contact information, such as landline and/or mobile telephone numbers, email address, provided to the Data Controller that allows the Data Controller to contact you in order to provide you with services/offers tailored to your needs;

Data in the reserved area: access to the reserved area of the Partitalia website is permitted only to users who register by filling in a special registration form. When the profile is created, certain Personal Data are requested, such as first name, surname, email address and mobile phone number. This is the 'registration data' required to successfully complete the profile and gain access to one's reserved area in order to use the services offered by the company;

Browsing data: in the course of their operation, computer and online systems and software procedures designed to operate and use the website provided by Partitalia acquire certain data (e.g. date and time of access, pages visited, the name of the Internet service provider and the Internet Protocol (IP) address through which you access the Internet, the Internet address you use to connect to the website, etc.), whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols or useful for better managing and optimising the system for sending data and emails. More information on the procedures using cookies and/or other tracking technologies to collect the information you provide while browsing the website can be found in the Cookies Policy available on the website itself;

Data acquired by Customer Service: data provided during interactions with Partitalia Customer Service, if you have agreed to provide them.

For the purposes of this Information, 'Personal Data Processing' refers to any operation or set of operations carried out using automated processes applied to Personal Data, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, retention, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, communication by transmission, dissemination or other form of provision, comparison or connection, restriction, erasure or destruction.

Note that your Personal Data will be processed manually and/or with the support of computer or online means.

Purposes and legal basis of the processing: in particular, your data will be processed for the following purposes related to the implementation of legal or contractual obligations:

- legally required compliance with taxation and accounting;
- supplier management;
- quality management;
- obligations under applicable laws;
- activity planning;
- supply order history.

Data processing method. Your personal data may be processed in the following ways:

- by entrusting third parties with processing operations;
- by computer;
- by manual processing with hard copy archives;
- data verification and modification only at the request of a party.

All processing is performed in accordance with the procedures set out in Articles 6 and 32 of the GDPR and by taking appropriate security measures.

Your data will only be processed by personnel expressly authorised by the Data Controller and, in particular, by the following categories of employees:

- the Administration.

Communication: Your data may be communicated to external parties for proper management of the relationship and, in particular, to the following categories of recipients, including all duly appointed Data Processors:

- banks and credit institutions;
- customers and users;
- consultants and freelancers, also in associated form;
- within public and/or private entities for which the disclosure of data is mandatory or necessary for compliance with legal obligations or otherwise functional for administration of the relationship;
- shipping agents, carriers, postal service and logistics companies.

Dissemination. Data may be disseminated by:

- publishing photos, logos and general data on the corporate website and social media.

Your personal data may also be transferred, while limited to the above-mentioned purposes, to the following countries:

- EU Member States;
- the United States.

Data retention period. Please note that in accordance with the principles of lawfulness, purpose limitation and data minimisation pursuant to Art. 5 of the GDPR, the period of retention for your personal data is:

- established for a period of time not exceeding fulfilment of the services provided;
- established for a period of time not exceeding fulfilment of the purposes for which they are collected and processed, and in compliance with the mandatory time limits prescribed by law.
